

MSC PSYCHOLOGY CLASS PROFILE 2026*

Accelerate your career prospects with our 100% online, part-time Masters degree in psychology. Designed for learners from a range of backgrounds, this fascinating course expands your psychological understanding. Align your study journey around current commitments with multiple intakes throughout the year.

87%
FEMALE
STUDENTS

35
AVERAGE AGE

34%
MORE THAN FIVE YEARS' WORK EXPERIENCE

Job roles include:

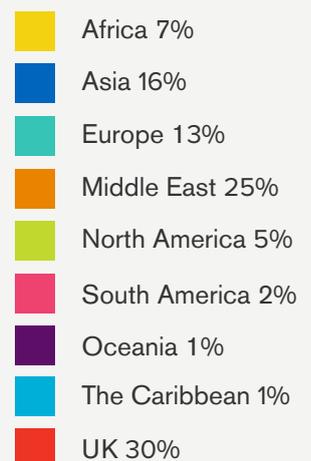

- Psychologist
- Education Consultant
- Special Education Needs Teaching Assistant
- UX Researcher
- Mental Health Coach
- Project Coordinator

Sectors include:

- Education
- Healthcare
- Consultancy
- Customer Service
- Media
- Social Care

44
NATIONALITIES

NATIONALITY
BY REGION:

A Masters degree in psychology is valuable for a wide array of fields, including counselling, the civil service, marketing, healthcare, academia, research and training. Advanced knowledge of concepts such as human development, principles of psychological enquiry and critical social psychology can open career opportunities in specialist areas of psychology.