

MSc INTERNATIONAL HEALTHCARE MANAGEMENT CLASS PROFILE 2026*

The MSc International Healthcare Management is delivered 100% online, part-time with no need for a career break. Delve into the global management of this complex field, consider contemporary management issues and reflect on the challenges faced in your own healthcare environment.

39
NATIONALITIES

50% more than five years' work experience

71%
FEMALE STUDENTS

40
AVERAGE AGE

Job roles include:

- Chief Clinical Officer
- Case Manager
- Paramedic
- Charge Nurse
- Occupational Therapist
- Radiology Technologist
- Medical Sales Specialist
- Dentist
- Assistant Pharmacist
- General Physician (GP)

NATIONALITY BY REGION:

There are a wide range of global career pathways available to MSc International Healthcare Management graduates – such as public and community health management, medical sales, outpatient care and public health, support services and many more roles in business and health.